FUNDRAISE YOUR WAY TO....

...AN EXPEDITION OF A LIFETIME

WELCOME TO YOUR 'FUN'DRAISING PACK

First and foremost, WELCOME to Venture Force! You are about to take part in, what we know will be, an adventure of a lifetime!

Fundraising, for many, can seem like an unclimbable mountain but it shouldn't be! See it as a challenge that you are going to overcome. Make it fun and keep positive; being friendly and smiley will always help!

The fundraising element of your expedition also allows you to take ownership of your expedition. How good are you going to feel when you get on that plane, knowing that you have made it happen and that it's your hard work that has allowed you to take part in this incredible opportunity?!?

This handy little booklet gives you some ideas and resources which you can use to get your fundraising started.

WHERE DO I START?

THE BIG PICTURE

Where do you start? That's a great question! We recommend you start by setting out your goals to give yourself an idea of the bigger picture.

- How much do I need to raise?
- How long do I have to raise it?
- How much do I need to raise on average per month?
- How much do I need to raise on average per week?

months

It is also perhaps worth thinking about when the best periods to fundraise might be e.g. Summer Holidays, Saturdays, Christmas and when you have other commitments such as exams that might mean your focus is not on fundraising.

Make a Plan: spread your fundraising efforts out over the period you have and set yourself realistic targets for each month!

YOUR PLAN

Month	Fundraising Activity	Target	Monthly total
E.g. December	Babysitting	£50	£180
	Card Making	£30
	Car Boot Sale	£100

WHAT SHOULD I DO?

Remember that you can fundraise individually as well as an expedition team! Team fundraising is a great way of getting to know your team mates and also gives you more man power to do the organisation. Try a combination of both methods!

- Part time job: get yourself a paper round or a job as a waitress/waiter at a local café.
- Offer a service: Get creative, ask around, maybe someone needs a dog or cat sitter, someone to mow their lawn or do their gardening, a baby sitter or their car washing.
- Coffee morning or cake sale: These are great and are very sociable. You could also offer to donate half of your funds to a charity such as the Venture Force Foundation or the Sumatran Orangutan Conservation Society and the other half of the funds raised would go to your expedition. Or just keep all the proceeds yourself.
- Get crafty: People love homemade items to give to friends and family, especially at Christmas – make cushions, cards, decorations, marmalade or jam.
- Sponsored Activity: Sign up for a sponsored run, cycle ride, swim, adventure race or something else completely mad! You can also get in contact with us as we could help your team plan a sponsored climb or abseil!
- Raffles, fetes and car boot sales: A great way to raise money! Try to get local shops or firms to donate prizes for the raffle. Remember you might need to register your event with your local council.
- School non-uniform day: Could you get your school to help out? The proceeds would go to your expedition team. Or offer to donate half of the money raised to charity.
- Supermarket Bag Pack: Contact your local supermarkets, you can help pack bags at the checkouts and shoppers donate money for your help!
- Black Tie Ball, Quiz Night, Movie Night or Restaurant Evening: Hold a night to remember at your school and sell tickets for a profit or chat with a local restaurant to see if you can get a deal for a set meal – sell tickets to friends and family to make a profit.
- Crowdfunding: Set up a page on www.gofundme.com or www.kickstarter.com and as friends and family to donate small amounts of money towards your expedition.
- Easyfundraising: We have a partnership with easyfundraising that allows you to fundraise through your every day shopping. Go to <http://ventureforce.easyfundraising.org.uk/> to sign up.

WRITE TO SOMEONE

There are loads of businesses and charitable trusts out there that often have little pots of money available to support young people take part in expeditions such as your own. It's a great way to gain funding if you are successful.

WHO?

- Local rotary or lions club
- Check out 'The Directory of Grant Making Trusts' at your local library
- Target local businesses or ones which could donate raffle prizes or even expedition kit – offer them something in return, such as tweeting, facebook-ing or Instagram-ing about their donation.

HOW?

In your letter, you need to address the following points:

- Who you are?
- Where you are going and what you are doing?
- Why you are doing it? Why is what your doing beneficial to you or someone else e.g. personal development, community work, conservation projects
- What you would like from them? If you ask for a donation, put it into context, tell them how much you have to raise and ask them if they could sponsor say 5% of the costs. Or ask for a piece of equipment and tell them how it will benefit you.
- Feel free to include a copy of our supporting letter which can be found on the next page.

GRANT GIVING TRUSTS

The list below of grant giving trust is only to give you a taste of what is available to young people and change from year to year, so get on the internet and do some research!

Lions Club + Rotary Club

Lions Clubs, Rotary Clubs and Roundtable organisations across the country have small pots of money available to young people living in their area who volunteer abroad on community service conservation projects. Check out your local branches for more details;

The Ferguson Trust

Is the trip forming part of your 'gap year' – if so, the trust has approximately 200 grants available on a first come first served basis to help young people fund part of an overseas gap year.

Young Explorers Trust

Grants are available for young people taking part in trekking and community projects. You must be Under 19 to be eligible to apply.

Lord Mayor's 800th Anniversary Trust

If you live in London and are aged 17-24, you can apply. Awards are available for a variety of personal development experiences with a value of between £50 and £1,000. You must demonstrate you can also fundraise through your own efforts.

Sir Philip Reckitt Educational Trust

If you live in Norfolk or Yorkshire, the Sir Philip Reckitt Educational Trust offers grants to help young individuals to make a difference through education on overseas projects.

Jack Petchey Foundation

Live in London or Essex? Up to £300 is available for individuals who want to volunteer abroad.

Joicey Trust

Live in Northumberland or East Scottish Borders – grants are available for young people travelling abroad to help with community development.

There are many more out there so get searching!

To Whom It May Concern,

We are delighted to confirm that [STUDENT NAME] will be taking part in a Venture Force Expedition to [LOCATION] in [MONTH,YEAR] as part of a team from [SCHOOL NAME].

The expedition is being facilitated by ourselves; Venture Force. We are a small expeditions company based in the East Midlands and take a relatively small number of students each year away on expeditions all over the world. As a small company we pride ourselves in offering bespoke expeditions which are designed to help the students develop personally, widen their understanding of other cultures and develop key life skills including organisation, communication and teamwork. In addition, the expeditions include really worthwhile and sustainable community and conservation projects which we put a lot of time and effort into planning. We really get involved with the host community and help them to do something that means something! We don't just turn up and paint a wall.

One of the biggest challenges facing the students who take part in our expeditions is raising the necessary funds. We strongly encourage all of our participants to take ownership of their expedition and fundraise for it creatively. It is a challenge, especially as the students are balancing their fundraising and training for expedition with their academic and other commitments.

This experience really is a once in a lifetime one and the skills development and experiences these young people gain go a long way to shaping their future.

We thank you for any support provide.

Kind regards,

Tom Tuckwood and Graham McDonald
Venture Force Directors

GET PUBLICITY

SOCIAL MEDIA

Social media is playing a more and more important role in spreading the word about your expedition. Why not create a Facebook page for your expedition where you can keep your friends, family and sponsors up to date with your progress. Put up a link to your fundraising page, put your training weekend and fundraising photos on it. Write a blog, create a website, tweet to local businesses. The possibilities are endless!

LOCAL PAPER AND RADIO STATION

Why not get in contact with your local radio station or newspaper and see if they would be interested in publishing something about your expedition. It's not every day that someone jets off across the world to build an orphanage in Ghana, help conserve orangutans in Sumatra or support homeless children in Malaysia.

A GREAT EXAMPLE !

Megan from our Buckhaven High School expedition to Mexico in 2016 set up an expedition Facebook page to help her with fundraising and to keep everyone up to date with her expedition progress!

She also held a Ceilidh and raised a very impressive £200!

The screenshot shows a Facebook page for 'Megan's Mexico Expedition'. The profile picture is a photo of two young girls. The page name is 'Megan's Mexico Expedition' with the handle '@MegansMexicoExpedition'. The navigation menu includes Home, About, Photos, Likes, Videos, and Posts. A green button says 'Create a Page'. The main post is dated '19 June' and includes a photo of a group of people at a ceilidh. The text of the post reads: 'Sorry it has taken me till today to post this but I've just been so busy! My ceilidh on Friday night was a huge success and I'm so thankful to everyone that supported me. The total raised was over £200 and that will go towards the equipment I need to buy for the trip. My total now is £3500!! Here is one of my FAVOURITE dances. Strip the Willow! 8 days and counting....!'. The post has 347 Views, 15 Likes, and 1 share. Interaction buttons for Like, Comment, and Share are visible at the bottom of the post.

SO, WHAT ARE YOU WAITING FOR?

GET OUT THERE, GET CREATIVE AND GET FUNDRAISING!

For more help with fundraising or to ask questions, please send our operations coordinator, Hannah, an email on hannah@ventureforce.co.uk. Hannah has been on many expeditions, her first when she was age 16, so she has lots of experience when it comes to fundraising for expeditions.

GOOD LUCK!
